Homecoming 2022

ON A BEAUTIFUL FALL DAY IN HAPPY VALLEY, THE COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ALUMNI SOCIETY BOARD REPRESENTED THE SOCIETY IN THE PENN STATE 2022 HOMECOMING PARADE. BOARD PRESIDENT, JONATHAN KLINGEMAN, SERVED AS THE DRIVER FOR THE SOCIETY'S FLOAT. BOARD MEMBERS ENJOYED HANDING OUT CANDY AND COLLEGE OF EDUCATION GOODIES TO THE PENN STATE COMMUNITY THAT LINED THE PARADE ROUTE. BOARD MEMBERS THEN JOINED OTHER ALUMNI AT THE PENN STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION'S POST PARADE PARTY AT THE HINTZ FAMILY ALUMNI CENTER. THE HOMECOMING EXPERIENCE WAS TOPPED OFF BY A HUGE 45-17 NITTANY LIONS FOOTBALL TEAM WIN OVER THE MINNESOTA GOPHERS IN AN EXCITING WHITE-OUT GAME AT BEAVER STADIUM.

THE ALUMNI SOCIETY BOARD IS ALREADY MAKING PLANS FOR A SOCIETY FLOAT IN THE 2023 HOMECOMING PARADE. STAY TUNED FOR MORE INFORMATION.

CONGRATULATIONS

This year we are proud that one of our College of Education alumni, Cornel Pewewardy, '89g, was recognized with the Penn State Alumni Fellow Award, the most prestigious award given by the Penn State Alumni Association.

CORNEL PEWEWARDY IS PROFESSOR EMERITUS, INDIGENOUS NATIONS STUDIES AT PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY, AND VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE COMANCHE NATION. HE GAVE A SEMINAR ON HIS RESEARCH AND WORK DURING HIS VISIT TO CAMPUS WHERE HE DISCUSSED HIS PROFOUND BELIEF IN THE POWER OF INDIGENOUS EDUCATION AND IN THE POWER OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

Trivia Answer: The Singing Lions

The Singing Lions a cappella group performed at the Alumni Society Awards Banquet for our awardees and their guests. The Singing Lions are the oldest a cappella group on campus, and travel up and down the east coast during spring break performing for alumni chapters.
